

FYF FASHION FINDING YOUR FEET

PRESS RELEASE.....PRESS RELEASE.....PRESS RELEASE.....

This year, Finding Your Feet is proud to announce that it's charitable appeal at this year's 5th Finding your Feet Fashion show event will be in aid of Great Ormond Street Hospital and a very special champagne reception, show and party will take place on 28th November at Funky Buddha, in the heart of London's Mayfair.

Proceeds from ticket sales and donations on the evening will go to Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's charity who are in much need of urgent funds to support the redevelopment of their site, continue to fund their important research and provide better facilities for children and for their families that would otherwise be completely unobtainable under the NHS. Great Ormond Street Hospital deals with over 200,000 children and teenage patients a year, and as we work towards hosting this year's show, Great Ormond Street hospital Children's Charity urgently needs to raise £30million to finish phase two of its redevelopment programme in order to upgrade its oldest buildings to create additional space to allow more children to be treated.
